his ankle.DATE:January 18-2005

(In your own words, explain what happened, when did it happen, how did it happen and any other details regarding the incident that you may remember. Use additional sheet or sheets if needed.)

Moses Feijerom came on Lit 200, in Saigon. He slip on the last section Step of the Aircraft Stair. He was busy looking around and talking to me and not down the steps as he comes down.
 I did shield him up so he will not really fall down. I ask him if any help or assistance to go get his ankle check at the Hospital.
 He said no, he is fine and this happens all the time where he slips.
 Ask him are you sure? He said yes, he is OK.
 At 5:15 pm He come to the canteen and ask if there any seat for Ceplarnon flight. I told him yes that I could take him. Moses said it will be better to go back to Saigon even though he come for the funeral. He said yes and he could rest better at home. As for there on his jet will be alot of running around. He mention that even though he already got his hotel room and local Gardens and rent a car. It seems OK for two of his kids are coming in on the last flight and he using it.

I ask mases again if it will be better to get his ankle check here at the hospital before he depart for Saigon. He said NO, it's OK. He just need to rest his ankle at home. I told them if he needed any help. Please check with me at the counter. He said, it's OK he will just go to the restaurant and relax as his watch is always 30 minutes advance as he does not like to be late. Even to his work, he is never late.

Before flight 300 boarding and his boarding pass is given to him. I have Jonas Suzuki ask him if he needed a wheel chair out to the Aircraft.

Mases Ferguson said, No it's OK. He is just fine.

If any questions on this report, please give me a call.

Thanks.

Drill.

Transcription of Incident Reports filed by Freedom Air Rota Station employees:Felicidad (Doll) Boddy, Rota Station Manager: Dated 1-18-05

Moses Fejeran came on Flight 200 from Saipan. He slip(ped) on the last (bottom) step of the aircraft airstair. He was busy looking around and talking to me and not (looking) down (at) the steps as he came down.

I did hold him up (caught him) so he will not really fall down. I ask(ed) him if any help or assistance (was needed) (or) to go get his ankle check(ed) at the hospital. He said, "No, he is fine and this happen(s) all the time where he slips. (I) ask(ed) him, "Are you sure?" He said, "Yes, he is OK."

At 3:11 PM, he came to the counter and asked if there is any seat for the afternoon flight. I told him yes, that I could take care of him. Moses said it will be better to go back to Saipan even though he came for the funeral. For his foot ured and he could rest better at home. As for here on Rota, it will be a lot of running around. He mentioned that even though he already got his hotel room at Coral Gardens and rent a car, it was OK as two of his kids are coming in on the last flight and would be using it.

I asked Moses again if it will be better to get his ankle check(ed) here at the hospital before he depart(ed) for Saipan. He said, "No, it is OK." He just need to rest his ankle at home. I told him if he needed any help; please check with me at the counter. He said, it's OK; he will just go to the restaurant and relax, as his watch is always 30 advance, as he does not like to be late.

Before flight 300 (was) boarding, I have Inas Suzuke ask him if he needed a wheelchair out to the aircraft. Moses Fejeran said, "No, it's OK. He is just fine."

Francisco Muna, Rota Station Agent: Dated 8-22-05
